An action-packed Family Extravaganza featuring dancing, singing and entertainment for babies, children and parents, takes place at London's fabulous Clapham Grand on Saturday 27th March.

This event is the brainchild of acclaimed celebrity children's entertainer and kids' fitness guru Amanda Frolich, founder of Amanda's Action Club. Amanda will be on stage with Beautiful South singer Alison Wheeler performing songs from Amanda's new album, Fun, Fitness and Music.

Activities include face painting, balloon modelling and live break-dancing on stage - all included in the £10 ticket (no charge for crawlers). A safe and secure area will be available for babies.

There are plenty of pampering opportunities for mums including Indian head massage, mini manicures and pedicures, professional individual make-up tuition by cosmetics artist Carly Kent and 15-minute taster sessions with award-winning personal stylist Lisa Talbot. These extras are just £5 each and a donation from profits will be made to the Ickle Pickles charity for premature and sick babies.

Snappy Snaps will also be on hand to take family photos with instant prints available to buy.

Ella's Kitchen is supporting the Family Extravaganza, providing tasty organic snacks for kiddies' food bags.
